

Mountain of Education Decree

We bless every boy, every girl, every man and every woman who attends or serves on the Mountain of Education in any capacity.

We bless every parent, administrator, principal, teacher, professor, counselor, driver, school board member or support staff person who serves.

We bless every homeschool, every charter, public or private institution of education, and commend them to care for, protect and lead the students into the discovery of knowledge, truth and the fear of the Lord, which is the beginning of wisdom.

We bless them to have a spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and of power, the Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord.

May they have discerning hearts to instruct the students in the ways they should go and to teach them to distinguish between right and wrong.

May all instructors honor the home and the parents of every student. May the parents train the children in the way they should go and model the ways of the Lord before them. May the partnership between the school and the home be glorifying to You, Lord.

Your Word, Lord, says 'how beautiful on the mountain are the feet of the messenger who brings good news, the good news of peace and salvation, the news that the God of Israel reigns!'

So today we declare a "good news" anointing upon the mountain of education, carried by those who know You . . . those who are a shining light on a hill. Thank you for anointing them as they carry peace, hope, love and compassion. Thank you for strengthening them and giving them everything they need to be a lamp that shines brightly for you in every sphere of education.

We thank you for a spirit of excellence upon every student. May they be diligent in their studies and do everything as unto the Lord. We bless their anointings and callings. May they discover the truth of who You are and all that You have called them to be, as they study, grow and learn this year.

We declare that every valley, every oppression, every difficult place shall be lifted, every mountain and hill made low and the glory of the Lord shall be revealed. We bless every student to find their strength in You, Lord . . . to know their worth and their value . . . to discover new ways of learning and the special gifts that you have given them.

We declare the word of the Lord from Jeremiah 29:11-13 over every Life Gate student, teacher and parent today . . . "For I know the plans I have for you, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you a hope and a future. Then you will call on me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you. You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart."

Thank you, God, for revealing Your immeasurably great power to every student and their family this year. Encourage them that nothing is impossible with You and that You are always working powerfully on their behalf.

Amen.
